Testimonials

“ISL gave me very practical handles for ministry. I was exposed to leaders that are successful at applying the principles they are teaching. ISL has definitely been the best educational experience for me in ministry. I’m proud to be a graduate.”

– Pastor

“ISL has broadened my awareness for the total ministry of the church. I have gained an appreciation for various models of ministry. I am impressed with the tremendous effort and conviction with which persons are serving God in the church today.”

– Lay person

“ISL afforded me the opportunity to build lasting friendships with my brothers and sisters in Christ. I also received great teaching from down to earth instructors who were so willing to open themselves to my life from their knowledge and valuable experience. I would recommend ISL to all those in leadership.”
